

PICK CONEY 'BEAUTY QUEEN'

2,000 See Brooklyn Girl Chosen for Atlantic City Pageant.

Coney Island paid court to its bathing beauties yesterday afternoon in the annual contest for the honor of representing the resort at the Atlantic City pageant in August. Forty-five girls paraded around the outdoor pool at Steeplechase Park to the strains of music and the click of motion picture cameras while more than 2,000 persons looked on.

Judges selected Miss Polly Walker, of 458 Fifteenth Street, Brooklyn. Her closest competitors were Miss Doris Wilson of Manhattan Beach and Miss Rose Kinder of 4 Dean Street, Brooklyn. All three received loving cups. Miss Walker received the title, "Miss Coney Island," and with a chaperon will have her expenses paid to the annual affair on the Boardwalk at Atlantic City.

The judges were John H. McCooey, Democratic leader of Brooklyn; Leslie Stratton, editor of The Coney Island Times; Louis Fischer, proprietor of the Hotel Shelburne, Brighton Beach; Dr. Phillip P. O'Brien and Wade H. Allison.
