

JAMES J. McCULLOUGH.

Helped to Found Steeplechase Park at Coney Island.

James J. McCullough, a pioneer in Coney Island amusement enterprises, where he was associated with his brother-in-law, the late George C. Tilyou, in the founding of Steeplechase Park, died on Saturday at his home, 626 Sixth Street, Brooklyn, in his seventieth year.

Mr. McCullough was said to have been the originator of the shooting gallery and had operated a number of these at Coney Island, Long Beach, Rockaway and Atlantic City. He was formerly secretary and treasurer of the Steeplechase Park Company.

A widow, the former Kathryn A. Tilyou McCullough; three daughters, Ellenore J. and Marion K. McCullough and Mrs. Kathleen A. Perry, and five sons, Edward J. T., George C., James J. Jr., Theodore V. and Leonard H. McCullough, survive.
